A total of ten (10) continuing education hours is required. These hours must be earned between August 1, 2022 and August 1, 2023.

CONTINUING EDUCATION - A total of ten (10) continuing education hours is required. All of your CE hours may be completed online through RACE approved CE. If you choose this option, five (5) hours must be “live” hours. Live is defined as interactive webinar or live-streamed offering. It is your responsibility to keep up with CE certificates and send a copy of them to our office only at the time of certificate renewal.

2022 graduates are exempt from CE for this renewal cycle.

PROOF OF ATTENDANCE

Proof of attendance at a continuing education meeting is required to renew your license.

The proof of attendance should consist of an attendance certificate form the sponsoring organization listing the name of the conference/program, the actual number of hours personally attended, the date(s) of the program, and your name.

NOTE: If you have been unable to secure the CE, please write a letter of explanation and advise exactly when you plan to earn CE credits for 2022-2023. This information will be brought before the Board of Veterinary Medicine.

I certify that I have completed the continuing education (CE) requirements for the renewal of my Veterinary Technician Certificate.
